One of the Mid-Atlantic's premier law firms is headquartered in Mt. Lebanon, PA. Shannon Construction was asked to build out the firms expanding office space on the 6th floor with new private office and new common space including: kitchen, conference room, and file room. In addition, this renovation included updating the entry and meeting space on the 7th floor.

Shannon Construction has worked with Cipriani and Werner on several updates for their total office update encompassing 17,000SF. Shannon Construction's approach to ensuring client satisfaction enables us to work with repeat clients such as Cipriani and Werner.
